

Course Dates

Our next accredited mediation
5-day training course dates

Manchester

October 2019

Training Module – Full

Assessment Module – Full

May 2020

Training Module – 19th – 21st

Assessment Module – 27th – 28th

October 2020

Training Module – 13th – 15th

Assessment Module – 21st – 22nd

From CEDR Mediation Audit 2018

- The average fees for more experienced mediators is £3,627
- Those undertaking between 20 and 30 mediations a year are earning an average of £68,000.
- Those mediators undertaking between 30 and 50 mediations a year are earning an average of £175,000 and those with over 50 cases a year are earning an average of £330,000 pa. One mediator earned £780,000.

Civil and Commercial Mediation Training

Mediation helps to resolve conflicts in the workplace, between businesses, and between businesses and consumers.

The Courts are increasingly encouraging parties to mediate. With such a huge variety of disputes which can be resolved through mediation, the civil/commercial market is growing all the time.

Pro Mediate a CMC Registered mediation provider, provides the best value Civil Mediation Council registered mediation training courses to enable you to become an accredited mediator. Our 5-day mediation training course, spread over 2 weeks, is extremely competitively priced.

Pro Mediate

Why ProMediate

- CMC Registered Mediation Provider and Training Provider
- Business orientated, allowing completion of the course in two modules, avoiding having to take 5 days off in a row
- Convenient Locations in Manchester, Birmingham and London (Other locations considered, please ask)
- Lunch and refreshments included
- Competitively priced compared to other training providers
- Mediation business session included with advice on starting a mediation business or incorporating mediation into your work or profession
- Training includes online mediation and telephone mediation training, which are growth areas
- Membership of the ProMediate panel of mediators following completion of observations
- Prioritisation on ProMediate Observations
- Mentoring on an ongoing basis and inclusion on ProMediate's observation list
- Training from mediators who run the HMCTS Manchester Mediation Pilot, an ADR provider which is certified by CTSI to deal with Consumer disputes and is at the cutting edge of mediation in the UK.
- Course director is experienced mediator, Council Member of the Law Society, solicitor, barrister and fee paid judge.

The Course

The cost of the course is £1,250 plus VAT but we offer a staggering 15% discounted price of £1,062.50 plus VAT if booked 4 weeks in advance. This unlike many, includes all course materials, lunch and refreshments, practical assessment, accreditation and subsequent written feedback. Delegates are trained by practicing mediation practitioners who are not solely trainers, having a real understanding of mediation as a business. Being accredited training, students upon completion of the course are entitled to apply to join the Civil Mediation Council as Registered mediators, having completed the requisite shadowing.

Accredited Training

This accredited training will be of particular interest to businesses, litigation lawyers and HR professionals interested in being workplace mediators and individuals who wish to become civil and commercial mediators.

ProMediate's mediator training course has a business emphasis and is specifically designed for your business needs. We provide a 3 day training module and 2 day assessment module held separately to comply with CMC requirements, but allowing you to continue working without having to take 5 days out of work in one go.

ProMediate (UK) Limited is a Registered CMC Mediation Provider, being one of very few Providers to offer Training too.

<http://www.civilmediation.org/join-cmc>

<http://civilmediation.justice.gov.uk>

What are the benefits

Once you successfully complete your five-day course you will be entitled to membership of our panel, to register with the Civil Mediation Council and be included in the MOJ Civil Mediation Online Directory subject to completing your 3 observations and complying with the CMC's requirements. – Applying for Registered Status

With such a huge variety of disputes which can be resolved through mediation, the mediation market is growing all the time.

Contact Us

Pro Mediate

01928732455
enquiries@promediat.co.uk

Visit us on the Web:
www.promediate.co.uk